J-Date Match for Bruce D. Hulman

Wonder of wonder! Miracle of miracles!!

Verbal expression of feminine urges from: Rachel O'Berkowitz.

Hey there Bruce, you ole stud you!! I wanna meet you!!! I saw your profile on J-Date and got really excited. I think we are a match!! I must admit that I flunked out of remedial Hebrew School but have since remedied that by studying and partying with some really "cool" Talmudic scholars! I just loved the way iPods fit into the tefilin!! It's like you can be davin' and jamin' or jamin' and davin' depending on whether you are "right brained" or "left brained." It's the latest thing in the kosher "hood!"

Origin: I was born in Dublin, Ireland. It was my first cousin, Dominic Steinberg from Rome who told me about your J-Date profile. Dominic is a little peculiar as is his name or my name for that matter.

Best Features: I'll let you find out!

Worst Features: I'm not sure there's a difference!

What I like to do on a first date: Have a first date!

What I don't like to do on a first date: I'm not sure!

What turns me on: Men with your background and sense of self

What turn me off: A switch

Hobbies: Breathing regularly, sometimes irregularly when I am with guys like you

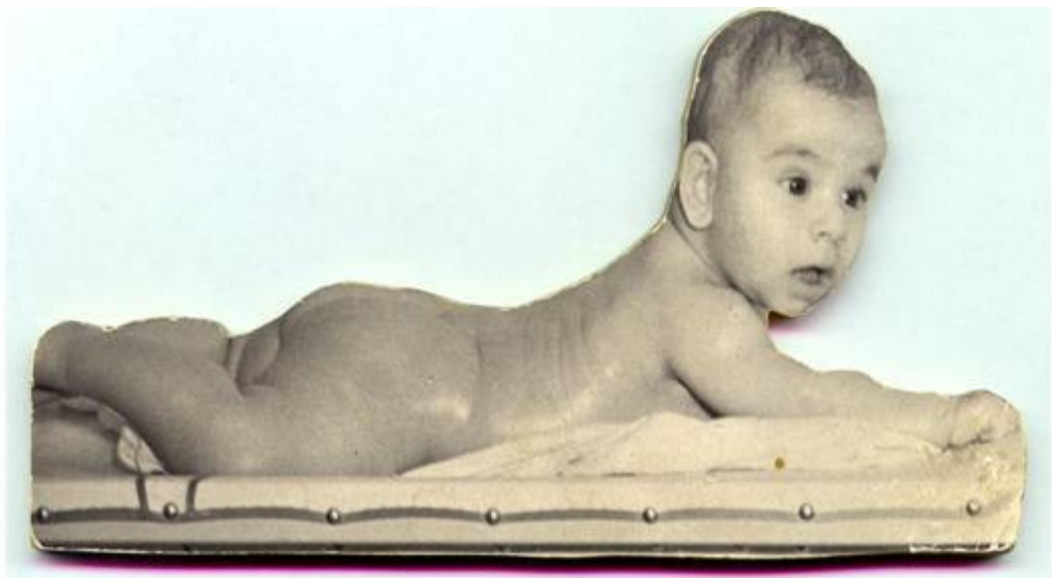

Dancing: I like to dance and just loved "American Bandstand." I can do the "fly", "pony," "watusi," "funky chicken," "boogaloo," "mashed potatoes," "twist," "shingaling," "monkey" and "freak."

Hopefully, I can do a dance that you can do as well. I hate disco dancing whose popularity was brought about by "Saturday Night Fever." John Travolta doesn't hold a candle to you...at least not a yartzeit candle anyway!

(Oh shit! There's more!)

Graphic representation of moi!!!

Bruce

This picture was taken of me while I attended a “high fiber” luau.

Nice navel, huh???

High fiber luaus are unusual events because after you eat you really don't have time to play the ukelelee! I do like to smoke “grass skirts” however..and wear them too!

(You guessed it..move on!)
